

PROMISE

INTERNATIONAL ENTERPRISES, LLC

Promise International Enterprises, LLC

Company Profile

Setting A Standard of Excellence in Service

15, January 2011

Authored by: Jerry O. Nwonye, Ph.D

Executive Summary

Introduction

Promise International Enterprises, LLC was formed in 1991 as a private company offering services to the Aviation and Portable Technology Sector of the American economy. With the universalization of the service sector through the World Wide Web, Promise International Enterprises, LLC expanded its reach beyond the American shores, and as the privatization of the aviation sector grew, it became necessary to carve out Promise International Aviation to specifically deal with the growing demand for specialized aviation services. Promise International Aviation offers professional aviation consulting for corporate, airline, government, and individual aviation needs. Within the Promise International Enterprises, LLC group, we have well-qualified aviation specialists, Portable High Technology specialist, Biometric Security specialists, Project Management Specialists, and we are in partnership with several well-renowned service providers because we believe that if we cannot meet our client's needs we should be able to help them find a solution with other trusted service providers. Our slogan: "If we cannot fix it for you, we will find someone we trust who can help us fix it for you!"

The Company

Promise International Enterprises, LLC has been created and legally organized as an American Limited Liability Company, with subsidiaries Aviation, Portable Technology, Computer Networking, and Computer application development and integration. Promise International Enterprises, LLC head office is located at 1745 Whidden Avenue, Downers Grove, Illinois.

In Nigeria, Promise International Aviation was registered in March 1994 as Promise Institute of Aeronautics, Limited to carry out the business of Aviation Training in Nigeria. Our primary goal is to localize the training of aviation personnel within the Nigerian aviation industry, and to expand our services beyond the Nigerian shores into the African sub-region. Today, Promise Institute of Aeronautics has a Nigeria Corporate Head Office at 15 Akani Showumi Street, Off Beesam, Mafoluku, Oshodi, Lagos State. Promise International Aviation is the parent company of Promise Institute of Aeronautics Nigeria Limited.

Promise International Aviation is a privately owned international arm of Promise International Enterprises, LLC and we are one of the largest independent aviation safety training company in the United States with corporate offices and partners throughout Europe and North America. We specialize in aviation safety and security matters, and we offer coordinated consulting assistance, and solutions to airlines, aviation training schools, airports, governments, civil aviation administrations, aircraft maintenance organizations, private corporations, fixed based operators (FBO's), and much more. On a yearly basis, we coordinate and provide various levels of training to aviation personnel such as flight attendants, pilots, technicians, instructors, managers and more, in a range of different aviation subjects. Many of our training and consulting partners are pacesetters in the field of aviation training.

Promise International Computers

At Promise International Computers, we specialize in providing generic state-of-the-art portable technology integration. We have partnered with NComputing to help our clients reduce their computing hardware costs by at least 75% and maintenance costs by 75%. Through our NComputing partnership our clients can also quickly and affordably provide computing access to their users with very minimal impact on the environment because NComputing is the greenest computing solution on earth. For our other clients who desire the traditional or other state-of-the-art computing devices, we bring them the combined advantage of our direct access and partnership with Toshiba and Lenovo.

We strive to understand our clients and their needs because we believe that by understanding the people we serve, we are better able to develop new ideas, create solutions and successfully implement them for any type of operations, and in partnership with our clients.

All Promise International Enterprises, LLC services are delivered by multi-disciplinary, multinational teams of experts in their various fields, and in cooperation with our partners. Our subject-matter experts are drawn from an array of specializations with experiences in their fields.

At Promise International Enterprises, LLC, we do not simply present solutions to our clients, but we work in partnership with clients to ensure cost effective, and efficient delivery of the services they need, and we do not leave until the job is well done. Let us help you provide your people the training they need to be successful on their jobs, and help you build your business to maximize all your resources for optimum output.